Committee Clerk

TRY MEDIATION, INC.

Dear Committee on Judiciary & Law Enforcement:

On June 16, 2022, I submitted our 1st quarter 2022 Financial Report to Eric Huse, Eau Claire County District Attorney's Operations Manager. Currently, TRY Mediation is operating with a budget with total profit $554.92 over budget and total expenses $1,299.33 under budget for a net profit of $1,718.08, which is $1,854.25 over budget. This is largely due to TRY Mediation adding another contracted county at the beginning of 2022 that was not anticipated.

Please see the included financial report for the 1st quarter of 2022.

Respectfully submitted:

- Staffing
 - We lost one fiscal clerk to the Circuit Court as a judicial assistant. New fiscal clerk will start April 4, 2022 so we will be fully staffed in Q2
- The Brief – publication sent to court partners regarding changes, procedures, and information related to the court system.
- Began using CCAP-3 in January 2022

ISSUES ON THE HORIZON AND SIGNIFICANT TRENDS

- We continue to work in a modified hybrid status with staff working remotely 1 day per week as appropriate based on Court needs.
- We are requesting two additional clerks when Branch 6 has its newly elected judge. One deputy clerk to begin August 1, 2022 and one to begin January 2, 2023 to help support a 6th branch.
- Interpreters will continue to appear remotely via Zoom. Interpreters shall appear in person for all trials or as Ordered by the Court. Interpreter fees have gone up significantly in the past few months across the state.

CURRENT COLLABORATIONS (INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL)

- Verify cases that have a statute requesting DNA collection for Department of Justice
- Work with Sheriff Office and CJCC data analyst on Fingerprint reviews
- Provide statistics to CJCCC and data analyst
 - Pretrial Program
 - Initial Appearances and cash bond ordered
 - Other requests
- Work with CourtOps and CCAP for hardware and software
- Collaboration with Child Support Agency – a Cooperative Agreement was signed end of March. We maintain timekeeping spreadsheets and provide them quarterly to Child Support Agency for reimbursement of funding from the state relative to IV-D cases. Also per that agreement, we provide them with weekly reports regarding restraining orders.
- Collaborate with IS for connectivity between state and county computer systems
- Collaborate with IS for all courtroom technology issues Work directly with many other court partners on a daily basis

GOALS FOR NEXT QUARTER

- Recruit/hire/train a new deputy clerk for the Criminal Team. Start date is August 1, 2022.

ISSUES ON THE HORIZON AND SIGNIFICANT TRENDS
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Branch 4 moved into the new courtroom – Branch 5 moved into the “old” Branch 4 courtroom – the “old” Branch 5 courtroom will become Branch 6 on August 1, 2022. ▪ Courts returned to in-court appearances; however, parties may request to appear remotely with reasonable notice. Traffic hearings, small claims hearings, and mediation will continue to be held remotely. This will be the normal practice for the foreseeable future. ▪ With the exception of trials, interpreters will continue to appear via Zoom or as ordered by the court. ▪ Jury trials are being held with masking only required during voir dire. ▪ Masking and social distancing is no longer required for in-court appearances.

- Throughout the state of Wisconsin DEAN appointments continue to rise. State Public Defender vacancies requires their agency to appoint attorneys from the private sector to represent defendants who qualify for public defender representation; however, many attorneys are turning down the appointments. The cases then fall to the Circuit Court to appoint an attorney at county expense.
- Interpreters across the state, including those out-of-state interpreters, have all increased their cost for services. Interpreters have seen a decrease in income as they no longer travel for hearings, so have increased their hourly fees. Having said that, their hourly fee had not increased in several years.
- We also have several jury trials scheduled this year for which interpreters are needed (two are mandated for each day of trial). One trial has need of a Chuukese interpreter - none are even close to the state of Wisconsin; therefore, we are looking at airfare, car rental, hotel and per diem for each interpreter. There are special circumstances for which the state will reimburse extra monies for interpreter - should this case go forward, we will be requesting this special reimbursement.

ART. I, §10, ANNOTATED WISCONSIN CONSTITUTION

The state is not entitled to protection under this section. State v. Halverson, 130 Wis. 2d 300, 387 N.W.2d 124 (Ct. App. 1986).

A register in probate's fee based on the value of the estate does not violate this section. Treiber v. Knoll, 135 Wis. 2d 58, 398 N.W.2d 756 (1987).

A court faced with a litigant who has engaged in a pattern of frivolous litigation has the authority to implement a remedy that may include restrictions on the litigant's access to the court. Village of Tigerton v. Minniecheske, 211 Wis. 2d 777, 565 N.W.2d 586 (Ct. App. 1997), 96-1933.

This section applies only when a prospective litigant seeks a remedy for an already existing right. It preserves the right to obtain justice on the basis of law as it in fact exists. Legislative actions define how the law does exist. Aicher v. Wisconsin Patients Compensation Fund, 2000 WI 98, 237 Wis. 2d 99, 613 N.W.2d 849, 99-2955.

Although Article I, s. 9, itself may not create new rights, it does allow for a remedy through the existing common law. The goal of providing certainty is not necessarily achievable, and that is not necessarily a bad thing. The common law develops to adapt to the changing needs of society. Thomas v. Mallett, 2005 WI 129, 285 Wis. 2d 236, 701 N.W.2d 523, 03-1528.

A referee's fees increase the costs of litigation and may have a chilling effect on litigants. If the expenses are not circumscribed, people with meritorious claims will be discouraged from pursuing them in court because they cannot afford to go to court. A reference to a referee in effect requires litigants to pay for the court system twice — once through the tax system and a second time by paying fees to a referee for resolution of their suit. Referee fees may offend constitutional mandates "if they chill advocacy severely enough to 'effectively end the litigation' or impose 'an intolerable burden on a losing litigant.'" Appointment of a referee is for the exceptional case; it is not the general rule. Universal Processing Services v. Circuit Court of Milwaukee County, 2017 WI 26, 374 Wis. 2d 26, 892 N.W.2d 267, 16-0923.

Victims of crime. SECTION 9m. [As created April 1993 and amended April 2020] (1) (a) In this section, notwithstanding any statutory right, privilege, or protection, "victim" means any of the following:

1. A person against whom an act is committed that would constitute a crime if committed by a competent adult.

2. If the person under subd. 1. is deceased or is physically or emotionally unable to exercise his or her rights under this section, the person's spouse, parent or legal guardian, sibling, child, person who resided with the deceased at the time of death, or other lawful representative.

3. If the person under subd. 1. is a minor, the person's parent, legal guardian or custodian, or other lawful representative.

4. If the person under subd. 1. is adjudicated incompetent, the person's legal guardian or other lawful representative.

(b) "Victim" does not include the accused or a person who the court finds would not act in the best interests of a victim who is deceased, incompetent, a minor, or physically or emotionally unable to exercise his or her rights under this section.

(2) In order to preserve and protect victims' rights to justice and due process throughout the criminal and juvenile justice process, victims shall be entitled to all of the following rights, which shall vest at the time of victimization and be protected by law in a manner no less vigorous than the protections afforded to the accused:

(a) To be treated with dignity, respect, courtesy, sensitivity, and fairness.

(b) To privacy.

(c) To proceedings free from unreasonable delay.

(d) To timely disposition of the case, free from unreasonable delay.

(e) Upon request, to attend all proceedings involving the case.

(f) To reasonable protection from the accused throughout the criminal and juvenile justice process.

(g) Upon request, to reasonable and timely notification of proceedings.

(h) Upon request, to confer with the attorney for the government.

(i) Upon request, to be heard in any proceeding during which a right of the victim is implicated, including release, plea, sentencing, disposition, parole, revocation, expungement, or pardon.

(j) To have information pertaining to the economic, physical, and psychological effect upon the victim of the offense submitted to the authority with jurisdiction over the case and to have that information considered by that authority.

(k) Upon request, to timely notice of any release or escape of the accused or death of the accused if the accused is in custody or on supervision at the time of death.

(L) To refuse an interview, deposition, or other discovery request made by the accused or any person acting on behalf of the accused.

(m) To full restitution from any person who has been ordered to pay restitution to the victim and to be provided with assistance collecting restitution.

(n) To compensation as provided by law.

(o) Upon request, to reasonable and timely information about the status of the investigation and the outcome of the case.

(p) To timely notice about all rights under this section and all other rights, privileges, or protections of the victim provided by law, including how such rights, privileges, or protections are enforced.

(3) Except as provided under sub. (2) (n), all provisions of this section are self-executing. The legislature may prescribe further remedies for the violation of this section and further procedures for compliance with and enforcement of this section.

(4) (a) In addition to any other available enforcement of rights or remedy for a violation of this section or of other rights, privileges, or protections provided by law, the victim, the victim's attorney or other lawful representative, or the attorney for the government upon request of the victim may assert and seek in any circuit court or before any other authority of competent jurisdiction, enforcement of the rights in this section and any other right, privilege, or protection afforded to the victim by law. The court or other authority with jurisdiction over the case shall act promptly on such a request and afford a remedy for the violation of any right of the victim. The court or other authority with jurisdiction over the case shall clearly state on the record the reasons for any decision regarding the disposition of a victim's right and shall provide those reasons to the victim or the victim's attorney or other lawful representative.

(b) Victims may obtain review of all adverse decisions concerning their rights as victims by courts or other authorities with jurisdiction under par. (a) by filing petitions for supervisory writ in the court of appeals and supreme court.

(5) This section does not create any cause of action for damages against the state; any political subdivision of the state; any officer, employee, or agent of the state or a political subdivision of the state acting in his or her official capacity; or any officer, employee, or agent of the courts acting in his or her official capacity.

(6) This section is not intended and may not be interpreted to supersede a defendant's federal constitutional rights or to afford party status in a proceeding to any victim. [1991 J.R. 17, 1993 J.R. 2, vote April 1993; 2017 J.R. 13, 2019 J.R. 3, vote April 2020]

The state did not breach a plea agreement when two police officers, one of whom the defendant shot during the execution of a search warrant, requested during the sentencing hearing that the sentencing court impose the maximum sentence. The police officers were not speaking to the court as investigating officers, but as victims of a crime, which they have a right to do. In Wisconsin, every crime victim has the right to make a statement to the court at disposition. State v. Stewart, 2013 WI App 86, 349 Wis. 2d 385, 836 N.W.2d 456, 12-1457.

This section provides for restitution only insofar as the legislature confers that right through statute. The legislature makes restitution available to crime victims under s. 973.20 and other statutes, but crime victims are not guaranteed restitution in every instance. Section 973.20 (12) (b) makes clear that restitution payments take priority over specific statutory fees, surcharges, fines, and costs, but the priority scheme does not include supervision fees under s. 304.074. OAG 2-15.

Marsy's Law: Changes for Crime Victims? Donaldson, Rabe Mayer, Robson, Rufo, Sattler, & Shirley. Wis. Law. Sept. 2020.

Treason. SECTION 10. Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against the same, or in adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted

CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS

*The rights listed below are an abbreviated list of your rights as a crime victim.
For a full list of rights, please see Wisconsin State Statute Chapter 950 and the Wisconsin Constitution.*

The Wisconsin Constitution provides crime victims with the following rights:

- To be treated with dignity, respect, courtesy, sensitivity and fairness.
- To privacy.
- To proceedings free from unreasonable delay.
- To timely disposition of the case, free from unreasonable delay.
- Upon request, to attend all proceedings involving the case.
 - If a victim is detained by any law enforcement agency or an inpatient under Wis. Stat. Ch. 51, 971, or 980, the court may require appearance under this section to be by telephone or live audiovisual means, if available.
- To reasonable protection from the accused throughout the criminal and juvenile justice process.
- Upon request, to reasonable and timely notification of proceedings.
- Upon request, to confer with the attorney for the government.
- Upon request, to be heard in any proceeding during which a right of the victim is implicated, including release, plea, sentencing, disposition, parole, revocation, expungement, or pardon.
- To have information pertaining to the economic, physical, and psychological effect upon the victim of the offense submitted to the authority with jurisdiction over the case and to have that information considered by that authority.
- Upon request, to timely notice of any release or escape of the accused or death of the accused if the accused is in custody or on supervision at the time of death.
- To refuse an interview, deposition, or other discovery request made by the accused or any person acting on behalf of the accused.
- To full restitution from any person who has been ordered to pay restitution to the victim and to be provided with assistance collecting restitution.
- To compensation as provided by law.
- Upon request, to reasonable and timely information about the status of the investigation and the outcome of the case.
- To timely notice about all rights under this section and all other rights, privileges, or protections of the victim provided by law, including how such rights, privileges, or protections are enforced.
- To ask a Circuit Court Judge or Court Commissioner to promptly review your case if you believe your victim rights have been violated. You may also file an appeal with the Court of Appeals and Supreme Court asking for a review of the Circuit Court Judge or Court Commissioner's decision if you believe the decision does not protect your crime victim rights.

Additionally, Wisconsin Statute provides crime victims additional rights including, but not limited to:

- Attend court proceedings, subject to any sequestration order. The court may require victims to exercise this right by telephone or other available means, if the victim is incarcerated, under arrest, or committed to a treatment facility, and the victim does not have a representative.
- Be accompanied to court by a service representative, in certain cases.
- Have his/her interests considered when the court is deciding whether to grant a continuance of any hearing in the case.
- Be provided a waiting area in court.
- Be provided with appropriate intercession services to ensure that employers of victims will cooperate with the criminal justice process in order to minimize loss of income or benefits resulting from court appearances.
- Request an order for and to be given the results of testing to determine the presence of sexually transmitted disease or of any strain of human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) in certain cases.
- Have the presentence investigation writer, in cases in which a presentence investigation is ordered, make a reasonable attempt to contact the victim.
- Have any stolen or other personal property expeditiously returned by law enforcement agencies when no longer needed as evidence.
- Complain to the Department of Justice concerning the treatment of crime victims and to request review by the Crime Victim's Rights Board of the complaint.

Victim Privacy Rights and Safety

The Eau Claire County District Attorney's Office values your privacy rights and safety as a crime victim and will make every effort to treat your case with sensitivity. However, this should not be interpreted as absolute privacy and we think it's important for you to be aware of these limitations. Therefore, please know if this case is charged, police reports and other materials that relate to this incident will have to be shared with the defendant and their attorney pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 971.23. Additionally, criminal proceedings are open to the public and will include filings that contain information about this incident. Finally, as part of the investigatory and prosecution process, information concerning this incident may be shared with assisting outside agencies and trial experts. If you would like more information about these practices and/or have questions or concerns about your privacy or safety please contact the Office of Victim Services at 715-839-4795 to discuss how we can best serve your interests.

Statutory Definition of Victim

Wis. Stat. § 950.02(4)(a) defines victim as the following: 1) a person against whom a crime has been committed; 2) if a child- a parent, legal guardian, or legal custodian; 3) if physically or emotionally unable to exercise rights- a person designated by the person or a family member; 4) if deceased- a family member or person who resided with the person; 5) if incompetent- the guardian of the person.

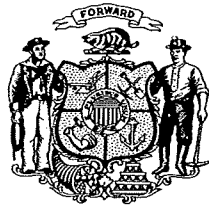

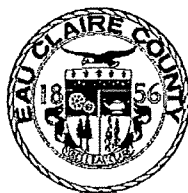

Crime Victim Compensation

A service of the Wisconsin Department of Justice
Office of Crime Victim Services

If you meet the following criteria, you may be eligible for financial assistance from the Crime Victim Compensation program:

- You are the innocent victim of a crime or the family member of a victim killed as the result of a crime.
- The crime has been reported to law enforcement and you are cooperating with the investigation and prosecution of the person responsible for the crime.
- You have or expect to have any medical bills, counseling expenses, lost wages, funeral expenses, etc. as the result of the crime.
- You do not have insurance coverage, public assistance, or any other source to pay for your expenses or they are not covered completely by these sources (i.e. you have out-of-pocket expenses).
 - Note: Crime Victim Compensation does not cover property loss or damage
- You must file a claim within 1 year from the date of the crime.
- Maximum possible payment per claims is $40,000.
- There may be additional restrictions that apply.

DERECHOS DE LAS VÍCTIMAS DE DELITOS

Los derechos que se mencionan abajo son una lista abreviada de sus derechos como víctima de un delito. Para obtener una lista completa de derechos, consulte el capítulo 950 de los Estatutos de Wisconsin y la Constitución de Wisconsin.

La Constitución de Wisconsin garantiza los siguientes derechos a las víctimas de delitos:

- A recibir un trato digno, respetuoso, amable, sensible y justo.
- A tener privacidad.
- A un procedimiento sin demoras irrazonables.
- A obtener una resolución oportuna del caso y sin demoras irrazonables.
- A asistir a todos los procedimientos relacionados con el caso, si lo pide.
 - Si una víctima está detenida por cualquier agencia de seguridad o está hospitalizada según los capítulos 51, 971 o 980 de los Estatutos de Wisconsin, el tribunal puede exigir que la comparecencia según esta sección se haga por teléfono o por medios audiovisuales en vivo, si es posible.
- A recibir protección razonable contra el acusado durante el proceso completo de justicia penal o de menores.
- A recibir un aviso razonable y oportuno de los procedimientos, si lo pide.
- A consultar con el abogado del Gobierno, si lo pide.
- A ser escuchado en cualquier procedimiento en el que esté implicado un derecho de la víctima, incluyendo la liberación, la declaración de culpabilidad, la sentencia, la resolución, la libertad condicional, la revocación o invalidación de los cargos, o el indulto, si lo pide.
- A que la información relacionada con los efectos económicos, físicos y psicológicos sobre la víctima del delito se presente a la autoridad con jurisdicción en el caso y a que esa autoridad considere esa información.
- A recibir un aviso oportuno, si lo pide, de cualquier liberación o fuga del acusado, o de su fallecimiento si el acusado está detenido o bajo supervisión en el momento de su muerte.
- A rechazar las solicitudes de entrevistas, de declaraciones o de otras pruebas que haga el acusado o cualquier persona que actúe en su nombre.
- A recibir la restitución total de la persona a la que se le haya ordenado pagar la restitución a la víctima y a recibir ayuda para cobrar la restitución.
- A recibir la indemnización prevista en la ley.
- A recibir información razonable y oportuna sobre el estado de la investigación y el resultado del caso, si lo pide.
- A recibir información oportuna sobre todos los derechos previstos en esta sección y de todos los demás derechos, privilegios o protecciones de la víctima previstos en la ley, incluyendo la forma en que se aplican esos derechos, privilegios o protecciones.
- A solicitar a un juez del Tribunal de Circuito o al comisionado del Tribunal que revise su caso de forma oportuna si cree que se han violado sus derechos como víctima. También puede presentar una apelación ante el Tribunal de Apelaciones y la Corte Suprema para pedir una revisión de la decisión del juez del Tribunal de Circuito o del comisionado del Tribunal si cree que la decisión no protege sus derechos como víctima de un delito.

Además, los Estatutos de Wisconsin garantizan otros derechos a las víctimas de delitos, incluyendo, entre otros:

- A asistir a los procedimientos del tribunal, sujeto a cualquier orden de retención. El tribunal puede exigir a las víctimas que ejerzan este derecho por teléfono u otros medios, si la víctima está encarcelada, detenida o internada en un centro de tratamiento, y no tiene un representante.
- A presentarse ante el tribunal acompañadas por un representante de servicios de apoyo, en ciertos casos.
- A que se tengan en cuenta sus intereses cuando el tribunal decida si concede el aplazamiento de alguna audiencia en el caso.
- A esperar en una sala de espera en el tribunal.
- A que le garanticen servicios de intercesión para asegurarse de que los empleadores de las víctimas cooperen con el proceso de justicia penal para reducir al mínimo la pérdida de ingresos o beneficios resultante de las comparecencias ante el tribunal.
- A pedir una orden para que le entreguen los resultados de las pruebas para determinar la presencia de enfermedades de transmisión sexual o de cualquier cepa del virus de inmunodeficiencia humana (VIH) en determinados casos.
- A que el encargado de la investigación precondenatoria, en los casos en que se ordene una, haga un intento razonable de comunicarse con la víctima.
- A que las agencias de seguridad devuelvan rápido cualquier bien robado o cualquier otro bien personal cuando ya no se necesite como prueba.
- A presentar una queja ante el Departamento de Justicia sobre el trato de las víctimas de delitos y pedir la revisión de la queja ante la Junta de Derechos de las Víctimas de Delitos (Crime Victim's Rights Board).

Derechos de privacidad y seguridad de la víctima

La Fiscalía del Condado de Eau Claire valora sus derechos a la privacidad y seguridad como víctima de un delito, y hará todo lo posible por tratar su caso con precaución. Sin embargo, esto no debe interpretarse como una privacidad absoluta, y creemos que es importante que sea consciente de estas limitaciones. Por lo tanto, tenga en cuenta que, si hay una acusación en el caso, los informes policiales y otro material relacionados con este incidente tendrán que compartirse con el acusado y su abogado de acuerdo con la sección 971.23 de los Estatutos de Wisconsin. Además, los procedimientos penales están abiertos al público e incluirán expedientes con información sobre este incidente. Por último, como parte de la investigación y del proceso judicial, la información relativa a este incidente podrá compartirse con agencias externas que den su ayuda y con peritos judiciales. Si quiere obtener más información sobre estas prácticas o si tiene preguntas o preocupaciones sobre su privacidad o seguridad, llame a la Oficina de Servicios para Víctimas (Office of Victim Services) al 715-839-4795 para conversar sobre cómo podemos atender mejor sus necesidades.

legal de "víctima"

La sección 950.02(4)(a) de los Estatutos de Wisconsin definen a la víctima como: 1) una persona contra la que se ha cometido un delito; 2) si se trata de un menor: el padre, la madre o el tutor legal, o quien tenga la tenencia; 3) si es incapaz física o emocionalmente de ejercer sus derechos: una persona designada por la persona o un familiar; 4) si ha fallecido: un familiar o una persona que residía con la persona; 5) si es incapaz: el curador de la persona.

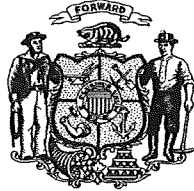

Indemnización para las víctimas de delitos

Un servicio de la Oficina de Servicios para Víctimas de Delitos del Departamento de Justicia de Wisconsin

Si cumple los siguientes criterios, puede ser elegible para recibir ayuda financiera del Programa de Indemnización para las Víctimas de Delitos (Crime Victim Compensation Program):

- Usted es la víctima inocente de un delito o el familiar de una víctima que murió a causa de un delito.
- El delito se denunció a las fuerzas de seguridad, y usted está cooperando con la investigación y el proceso judicial contra la persona responsable del delito.
- Usted tiene o cree que tendrá facturas médicas, gastos de consejería, pérdida de salario, gastos funerarios, etc., como resultado del delito.
- No tiene cobertura de seguro, ayuda pública ni otras fuentes de ingresos para pagar sus gastos, o estos no están cubiertos en su totalidad por estas fuentes (es decir, tiene gastos de bolsillo).
 - Nota: El Programa de Indemnización para las Víctimas de Delitos no cubre las pérdidas ni los daños de bienes.
- Debe presentar un reclamo en el plazo de un año a partir de la fecha del delito.
- El pago máximo posible por reclamo es de $40,000.
- Pueden aplicarse otras restricciones.
